Description:
In conjunction with the International Student Services First Year Experience, the International Leadership Team (ILT) is comprised of a group of returning students who have been selected, trained and paired up with small groups of incoming first year international students. Since all incoming First Year students will be put into small groups during the “YOU at KU” International Student Orientation, these groups will be retained and used as the framework for this program. ILT Leaders will be trained before orientation begins and serve as a volunteer to assist their group’s Orientation Leader during orientation. At the conclusion of orientation, the ILT Leaders will emerge as the group leaders and will engage their assigned group members, both individually and as a group, to bring them to activities, gather them for group discussions or social meetings, and communicate with them as prescribed by the structure of this program. Assuming that there will be 25 undergraduate orientation groups, we will select 25 ILT Leaders in order to have one ILT Leaders assigned to each of the 25 student groups. To be considered for selection on the Fall 2015 International Leadership Team, please complete the application at http://iss.ku.edu/ILT.

Required Qualifications:
- Must be actively enrolled as student at KU
- Must have completed one full semester of study at KU
- Must retain a cumulative GPA of 2.5 or above
- Must have at least one semester of college level participation in campus/community organizations, activities, and/or programs
- Must have strong interpersonal skills
- Must have ability to effectively organize time and tasks

Duration of Appointment:
The ILT Leadership role will begin on August 10, 2015 and end on December 18, 2015. Please understand that this position requires commitment to the program through the entire duration of that period, including:
- Meeting or connecting with your group or individual group members several times each month
- Regularly attending the ILT meetings
- Committing to this opportunity from August 10 – December 18, 2015

Regular ILT Meetings:
Sincere commitment to this program is required, and as a result, students who miss more than two meetings throughout the semester may be asked to leave the team. The International Leadership Team will meet on the following Wednesdays from 4:00-5:00pm:
- September 9th
- September 23rd
- October 7th
- October 21st
- November 4th
- November 18th
- December 9th

(see page 2 for Responsibilities and Benefits)
Responsibilities:
Please note that responsibilities may be changed, removed, or added as needed, and that the ISS Programming and First Year Experience Coordinator will attempt to clearly communicate any and all changes to all ILT Leaders.

Prior to Orientation (August 10, 2015): (please note that this is still pending)
- Participate in all required training sessions
- Participate in OL/ILT Mixer and collaboration meeting

During Orientation (Approximately August 11-18, 2015):
- Attend the Opening Ceremony on the afternoon of Tuesday, August 11th, 2015
- Participate in any additional required training sessions during orientation week
- Attend every group meeting with your orientation group (approximately once per day)
- Attend Meals (excluding meals provided by outside sources)
- Assist with leading activities during and immediately following orientation such as:
  - ILT Hosted Game Night
  - Late Night at the Rec Center
  - Afternoon/Evening on the Town (Mass. St.)
- Assist with shopping runs to Walmart on one evening during orientation.

During Hawk Week (Approximately August 20-30, 2015):
- Invite and escort all members of your group to a pre-determined number of events, to be announced by ISS Programming and First Year Experience Coordinator
- Schedule, announce and facilitate an additional group meeting

Every Month from September 2015 until December 2015:
- Attend regular ILT meetings with ISS Programming and FYE Coordinator (see above for meeting schedule)
- Every month, ILT Leaders will make several efforts to contact and connect with their entire group, including bringing them to events and gathering them for additional group meetings
- Every month, ILT Leaders will host an “ISS Monthly Meet Up” where they will select an existing event, promote it, and meet students there as a host.
- Every month, ILT Leaders will make at least one attempt to individually contact and connect with each member of their group, including sending emails and/or social media messages.
- During the semester – Every ILT leader will be grouped with several other ILT leaders to plan and implement one social/experiential event. All FY international students will be invited to attend, but attendance may be limited depending on the event. ILT Leader groups will work with ISS Programming & First Year Experience Coordinator to plan each event.
- Use Facebook to invite students in your group to the various ISS events

Benefits:
- This is a volunteer position that provides outstanding leadership and development experience
- Opportunity to win the Outstanding International Leadership Award
- Free ILT T-Shirt (as long as there are not any complications with the current t-shirt process)
- Free Meals during August 2015 Undergraduate Orientation (excluding meals provided by outside sources)
- Detailed training and opportunities to grow as a leader
- Opportunity to connect with other students, student leaders, and university staff members
- Formal recognition from the International Student Services office at the University of Kansas
- Receive significant credit toward KU Certifications in Engaged Learning programs:
  - Global Awareness Program
  - Leadership Studies
  - Service Learning