

International Student Services is now accepting applications for...

you at KU

International Student Orientation Leaders

Fascinated with other cultures?

Love helping others?

Enjoy meeting new people?

Want to help welcome new international students to KU?

Then maybe you have what it takes to be a student Orientation Leader for the 2017-2018 International Student Services "YOU at KU" Orientations!

Direct link to the posting and application:

<http://employment.ku.edu/student/8390BR>

Applications will be reviewed as received until all positions are filled. Apply early for the best chance. Applicants selected for an interview will be emailed to schedule their appointment time; not all applicants will be interviewed. See posting for full details.

Read the qualifications carefully to confirm eligibility before accessing the application. A resume and cover letter explaining your interest in the position and relating your experience to the listed qualifications must be submitted as part of the on-line application. Applicants not meeting all required qualifications or who do not submit a complete application will not be considered.

Please send any questions to issorientation@ku.edu.